

I wish I was still on holiday.

But you have to come back to school some time.

Why? I wish I was on holiday all the time.

But if you were on holiday all the time you would get bored.

Not if my friends were on holiday too.

But if you never go to school it's not a holiday any more.

Why?

Because it would always be the same. Holidays are fun because they are different.

But we could do different things each day. We could do what we wanted all the time. No work, ever! That would never get boring.

My grandad does no work any more. He can do what he wants all the time. But he gets bored.

That's because he's old.

No. My grandma is old, but she's not bored because she still goes to work.

I still think I could enjoy being on holiday all the time. If I got bored I could pretend I was at school.

But if you never went to school, how would you know what to pretend?
THE END

Could you be on holiday all the time? Why, or why not?

If you could, would it be good? Why, or why not?

I wish I was still on holiday.

But you have to come back to school some time.

Why? I wish I was on holiday all the time.

But if you were on holiday all the time you would get bored.

Not if my friends were on holiday too.

But if you never go to school it's not a holiday any more.

Why?

Because it would always be the same. Holidays are fun because they are different.

But we could do different things each day. We could do what we wanted all the time. No work, ever! That would never get boring.

My grandad does no work any more. He can do what he wants all the time. But he gets bored.

That's because he's old.

No. My grandma is old, but she's not bored because she still goes to work.

I still think I could enjoy being on holiday all the time. If I got bored I could pretend I was at school.

But if you never went to school, how would you know what to pretend?
THE END

Could you be on holiday all the time? Why, or why not?

If you could, would it be good? Why, or why not?