

Christmas Present Disarmament Treaty

In the interests of Christmas present non-proliferation...

I/we _____ propose that this Christmas, we agree with you _____ and in respect of any children listed here:

that we will de-escalate our present buying for one another this Christmas as follows:

Section A: Presents for one another (tick as appropriate)

- No presents No cards
- Arrange to spend time together instead
- Maximum value of £__ per person each
- Only second hand presents
- Only edible or quaffable presents
- Only books
- Only experiences, not things
- Only experiences we can have together
- Only alcohol
- Only child-sitting for _____(duration)

Section B: Presents for children (if applicable, tick as appropriate)

- No presents No cards
- Arrange to spend time together instead
- Maximum value of £__ per person each
- Only second hand presents
- Only edible or quaffable presents
- Only books
- Only experiences, not things
- Only experiences we can have together
- Only money or book tokens of £ __ each
- No plastic, gendered or entertainment franchise related tut

Section C: Self-congratulatory moralising

We are doing this because (tick all that apply):

- We love the planet
- We are decluttering
- Shopping is dull. We have/ would like a life
- We wish to strike a blow against capitalism
- Shopping for other people is economically suboptimal due to imperfect information about the preferences of other

Signed on _____